CONTENTS

Foreword	29
Preface	31
Introduction	35
BRIDGE PILLAR 1: Of Truth and Revolutions—Mankind Is Set Spinning and the Birth of the Miraculous Science	47
[1] “Copernicus set off a revolution in science.”	49
[2] “Descartes’s legacy continues to live in modern science.”	55
[3] “Medicine is stuck in chemistry.”	59
[4] “Humans are not just chemistry. They are a mix of energy, information, and Spirit.”	65
[5] “Subtle energies are not one of the traditional forces in science.”	71
[6] “Psychoenergetic science points the way to new possibilities for Man.”	79
[7] “The electromagnetic world is complete with the discovery of the Higgs boson.”	83
BRIDGE PILLAR 2: Mind Beyond Brain and Levels of Being	89
[8] “Consciousness is not localized in your brain.”	91
[9] “To thine own self be true.”	97
[10] “Your unconscious mind is a powerhouse.”	101
[11] “Consciousness is a continuum of levels.”	105
[12] “Intention is a process of creation. But first, you have to clear out your crap.”	111
[13] “We have to go beyond space-time when we consider consciousness.”	115

[14]	“There must be a mathematical formalism between intention and experiment that can be directly tested and quantified.”	119
------	---	-----

BRIDGE PILLAR 3: Of the Mighty Second Law of Thermodynamics, Entropy, and Information 125

[15]	“Learn thermodynamics. The terms of the second law hold the keys to understanding nature.”	127
[16]	“Boltzmann bridged the macroscopic world you see and observe with the microscopic world of atoms.”.....	133
[17]	“Thermodynamics is essential to biology.”	137
[18]	“People say that life violates the second law of thermodynamics. This is not the case; we know of nothing in the universe that violates that law.”	141
[19]	“The most fundamental aspect of the universe and reality is information. It’s more fundamental than matter or energy. Information is the gateway and bridge to understanding ourselves.”	145
[20]	“Information is related to entropy.”	149
[21]	“Entropy and information are crucial to biology.”	153

BRIDGE PILLAR 4: Four Target Experiments That Bridge Human Intention to Physical Reality in the Laboratory 157

[22]	“Intention is a process of creation.”	159
[23]	“We were assisted by the Unseen.”	163
[24]	“We lost our controls.”	169
[25]	“We can affect materials like water with purely our intention.”	173
[26]	“Intention can enhance biological enzyme function.”	177
[27]	“The happy fruit flies.”	183

[28] “Objects can have ‘intelligence.’”187

BRIDGE PILLAR 5: Of Physical Space and Dual Realities:

Beyond the Speed of Light193

[29] “Physical space is malleable to human intention.”195

[30] “Paul Dirac coined the term ‘empty space.’” 201

[31] “Space conditioning has a signature with magnetic monopole effects.”207

[32] “A conditioned space means raising the symmetry of the physical vacuum’s electromagnetic state.”213

[33] “Space conditioning requires a new type of reference frame than just space-time for viewing nature.”219

[34] “There is higher thermodynamic free energy available in conditioned space.”223

[35] “There is another communication channel in nature. The R-space is the medium whereby information is transferred. It is information entanglement.”227

[36] ““I postulate a new particle, deltron, that connects direct-space with reciprocal-space.”231

[37] “Humans create field effects.”233

[38] “The term ‘zero-point energy’ is misunderstood by the general public to mean something to do with consciousness.”237

BRIDGE PILLAR 6: Subtle Energy and Information Medicine for the Twenty-First Century: Subluminal and Superluminal Bridge Together243

[39] “The acupuncture system is the energy pump in the human body.”245

[40] “My research has led me to develop personal practices

	for subtle energy balancing and pumping.”	251
[41]	“Healing spaces can be created where people feel safe and well.”	255
[42]	“Information Medicine is the way of the future.”	259
[43]	“Many people are deficient in self-acceptance.”	267
[44]	“Information Medicine is personalized medicine.”	273
[45]	“Consciousness beats lifestyle.”	281

BRIDGE PILLAR 7: Of Thermodynamics, Love, and

	Becoming Homo Spiritus	285
[46]	“It is not a traditional force that radiates from the relics of the historical Buddha.”	287
[47]	“Thermodynamics of loving-kindness can be measured.”.....	293
[48]	“The Buddha relics show us the answer to mankind’s age-old question: Does consciousness survive physical death?”	297
[49]	“Nothing is causing anything.”	301
[50]	“We can reach for the stars.”	305
[51]	“Brighten the corner where you are.”.....	309
[52]	“Mankind is evolving to adepts, masters, and avatars by the tool of intention.”	313
